

9 FEB. 1985

THE WASHINGTON POST

The TV Column

is discussed by Alfred F. Moran of Planned Parenthood of New York City (Channel 26 at 11 a.m.).

John McLaughlin: One on One. With Sen. Paul Laxalt (R-Nev.) (Channel 4, 11:30).

This Week With David Brinkley. (Channel 7, 11:30).

Face the Nation. The state of the union is discussed by publisher Malcolm Forbes; Beverly Sills, director of the New York City Opera; former congresswoman Barbara Jordan; and Calvin Trillin of The New Yorker magazine (Channel 9, 11:30).

American Debate. "Negotiating With the Soviets" is discussed by Edward Luttwak of Georgetown University's Center for Strategic and International Studies and Raymond Garthoff, former U.S. ambassador to Bulgaria (Channel 26, 11:30).

Meet the Press. With Senate Majority Whip Alan Simpson (R-Wyo.) and House Majority Whip Thomas Foley (D-Wash.) (Channel 4, 12:30 p.m.).

It's Your Business. The budget is discussed by Rep. William E. Dannemeyer (R-Calif.), Rep. Pat Williams (D-Mont.) and Jack Ossofsky of the National Council on Aging (Channel 7, 12:30).

American Interests. With President Reagan's U.N. ambassador-designate Vernon Walters (Channel 26 at 6).